

SUMMER BUCKET LIST

for families in the Baton Rouge area

- Spend an afternoon at a splash park (my personal favorite is the one at Jambalaya Park in Gonzales)
- Visit Liberty Lagoon
- Run through the sprinklers
- Swim in a pool
- Jump on the inflatable water slides at Cajun Lagoon
- Go Tiki Tubing
- Take swimming lessons
- Have a water balloon fight
- Eat a snoball (see how many different flavors you can try over the course of the summer)
- Make sun tea
- Attend the Food Truck Wround Up
- Go to the Red Stick Farmer's Market
- Make root beer floats
- Have a backyard cookout
- Pick blueberries at the Blueberry Farm
- Make homemade ice cream
- Bring your kids to take a cooking class at Young Chefs Academy
- Make s'mores (and mix them up by adding Nutella or strawberries)
- Make lemonade and have a lemonade stand
- Paint pottery at The ARTistico Express
- Make tie-dye shirts
- Go camping (at a campground or in your own backyard)
- Take a walk through Bluebonnet Swamp
- Visit a park that you haven't been to before
- Wash the car
- Play frisbee
- Go for a walk along the LSU lakes
- Blow bubbles
- Play hopscotch
- Watch fireworks for the 4th of July
- Go hiking at Tunica Hills
- Take a family bike ride along Tammany Trace
- Lay on a blanket in the back yard and watch the stars

For a full list with links, go to redstickmomsblog.com.

Help us join in your fun by using the hashtag #rsmbsummerfun in your social media posts.